Part V, line 4: Endowment is a vital funding source for The Denver Public Library's long-term financial health. The Endowment consists of several restricted endowments and an unrestricted endowment. The restricted funds support a broad array of programs/services/materials within The Denver Public Library, while distributions from the unrestricted endowment are prioritized for specific current needs as requested by the Library and approved by the DPLFF Board of Trustees.

Restricted endowments in 2012 supported acquisition of a variety of titles for the circulating collection. Examples include materials relating to post-secondary education and GED preparation, musical scores and poetry anthologies. A restricted endowment for staff training/development purchased training materials. Endowments relating to Western History/Genealogy provided for acquisition of antiquarian materials and supported the preservation and care of the collection by Library Archivists. The unrestricted endowment distribution in 2012 was used for improving signage and way-finding that conforms with the Library's branding standards at six branch libraries.

Part X, Line 2: The Foundation follows the Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes accounting standard which requires the Foundation to determine whether a tax position (and the related tax benefit) is more likely than not to be sustained upon examination by the applicable taxing authority, based solely on the technical merits of the position. After evaluating the tax positions taken, none are considered to be uncertain; therefore, no amounts have been recognized as of December 31, 2012 or 2011. If incurred, interest and penalties associated with uncertain tax positions would be recorded in the period assessed as other operating expense. No interest or penalties have been assessed as of December 31, 2012. The Foundation's federal Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax (Form 990) for the previous three years, 2009 through 2011, are subject to examination by the IRS, generally for three years after they were filed.

Form 990, Part III, Line 1, Description of Organization Mission:

The Denver Public Library Friends Foundation (DPLFF) has a history of over 70 years of continuous commitment to the Denver Public Library.

DPLFF supports the Library in the accomplishment of its goals and objectives and strives to enhance the Library's services through advocacy, activities and programs, and through its membership program and fundraising. As the preferred avenue for private donations, DPLFF takes stewardship of all funds very seriously as is demonstrated by its active management of the endowment funds and other restricted gifts.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a, Program Service Accomplishments:

reading in children including Earlier is Easier, Summer of Reading,

After School is Cool and Read Aloud received enhanced funding. English language learners benefitted from target programs to improve English language skills. Funds were also used to support staff development, training and to promote employee empowerment. Additionally, DPLFF provided support for updated technology for DPL staff in the form of iPads, Nooks and Kindles in order for staff to be better equipped to help customers using this new technology.

With the passage of ballot initiative 2A in November, Denver voters spoke loud and clear about the importance of their neighborhood libraries. As a result, Library open hours will increase by 40% across the system. However, with longer hours, private funding has become increasingly important in helping the Library keep pace with the growing demand for programs, services and materials. DPLFF is committed to providing the increased funding needed to meet those demands.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11: The Form 990 was reviewed in detail by the Finance Committee and then was provided to the full board of trustees for review prior to submission to the Internal Revenue Service.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c: Each year all trustees fill out a conflict of interest questionnaire and indicate any potential conflicts that may need to be disclosed. Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15: All services provided to the Foundation by its Director were provided by Denver Public Library at no cost to the Foundation. As such, the process for determining the compensation of this individual is done by Denver Public Library.
